INDIAN LAND INVESTIGATION STILL CONTINUES TO ATTRACT INTEREST.

INDIANS SOUGHT TO SIGN

The Papers Which Gave Power of Attorney for the Sale of Their Tribal Lands.

McAlester, Okla., Aug. 8.—The congressional inquiry into the McMurray Indian contracts was transferred here from Muskogee today.

W. T. Holman, a Choctaw Indian, testified that McMurray paid him a dollar for each Indian name he got on the contracts to sell their lands. He declared the Indians were so anxious to sell that they were willing to pay any commission necessary.

McMurray said the Indians asked him to sell the lands and offered him ten per cent commission. McMurray, a Choctaw Indian, reiterated his charges that McMurray offered him $25,000 to withdraw opposition to the original contracts.

There are reports today that before the investigation of the Gore charges are completed, that there will be evidence brought out that there was a "fix" in Congress which handled all Indian contracts on bulk contracts and that therefore there

MORE SCARE THAN HARM BY DROUGHT

Thrashing Season Reveals Fact That Grain Crops Give Good Yield, Although Corn and Potatoes Suffer.

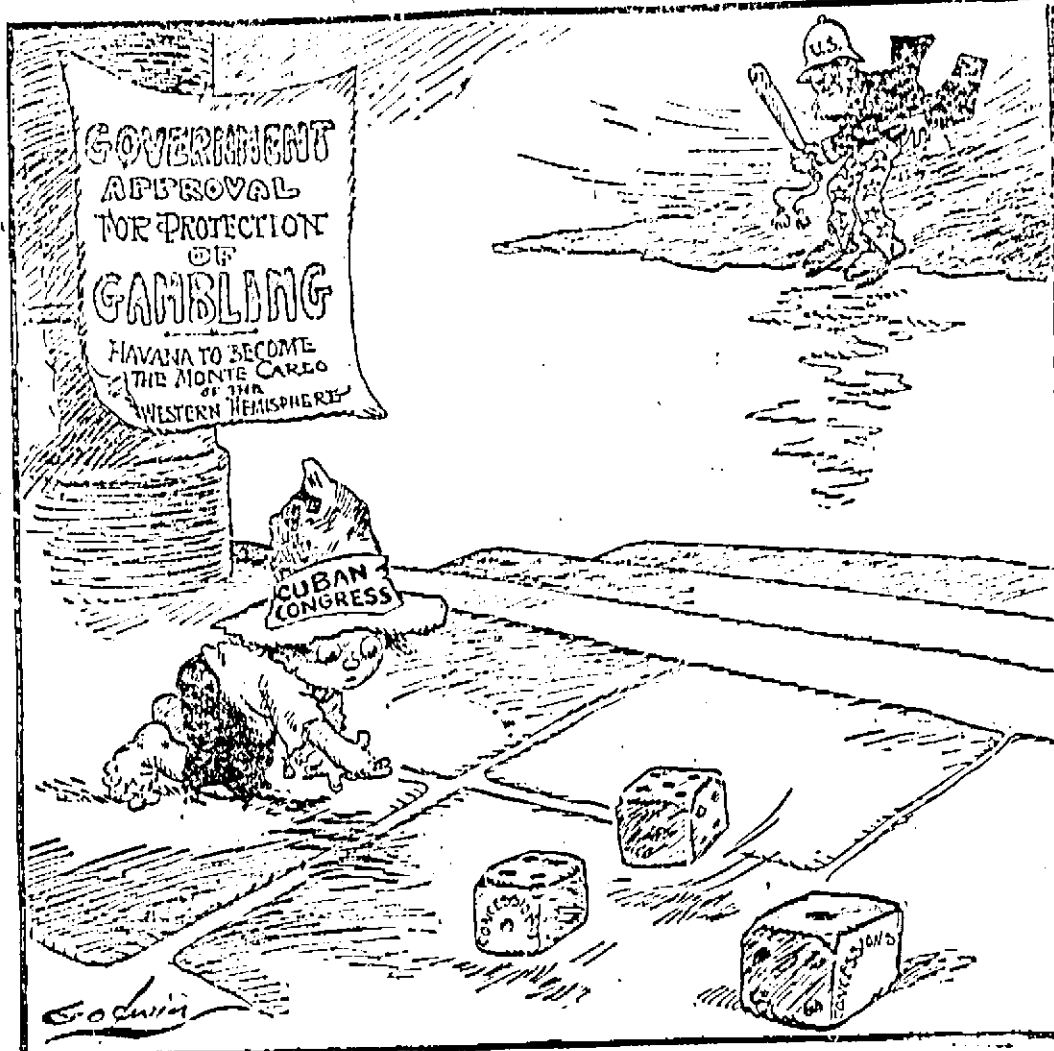

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Aug. 8.—The thrashing season has commenced and again the fact is revealed that many farmers were "more scared than hurt" over the effect of the drought. The small grains are turning out a good yield to the acre, in many cases better than an average. The corn crop looks at present as though there will be but half a crop, but even this will average up pretty well with plenty of rain in the immediate future. The early tobacco looks well but the late crop is showing up poorly.

Some phenomenal yields of small grains are being reported. J. E. Humphrey, Dutch Grove, Wis., threshed 770 bushels of oats from ten acres. Yields of from 60 to 70 bushels are not unusual.

James Tamby, Dodgeville, Iowa county, Wis., threshed 28 bushels of wheat to the acre, and W. H. Becker, Leg had 10 bushels of oats to the acre. Early potatoes in many sections are a failure, many patches yielding absolutely nothing.

The new crop, is reduced by one-half. The drought made the crop very light in all pea districts. Some of the crops yielded only about twelve bushels to the acre, considerably less than a half crop. The prospects for a good yield of cranberries in the Grand Rapids, Wis., district are better than was expected early in the season. The percent of blight seems to be small and the growers are looking forward to a full crop. It will require water to mature the fruit and protect the vines from the fall frosts. At this time the water is extremely low in the logs and nothing short of a heavy rainfall will give them a sufficient supply of water.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 8.—Products of La Crosse factories which are not made by union labor, will not be permitted to be exhibited in the Labor Day parade according to announcements made by unionists of the city. The committee in charge has decided that it will not allow goods made by non-union workers to be shown in the parade of the organized workers, and this decision has been concurred in by the trades and labor council.

TROUBLE DUE FOR THE DEMOCRATS

Startling Developments May Arise in State Convention With Regard to Liquor Problem.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Galveston, Texas, Aug. 8.—Delegates to the democratic state convention to be held here tomorrow are already arriving in large numbers. The attendance promises to be unusually large. Though there are no nominations to be made, the state ticket having been selected at the primaries on July 23, the convention promises to be anything but a perfunctory affair. The discussion in the party over the prohibition question, particularly as to insure a lively gathering, with the possibility that it may result in a serious split in the party ranks.

The situation with regard to the prohibition issue is the most remarkable in the political history of Texas. The trouble grows out of the fact that O. B. Colquitt, candidate of the anti-prohibitionists, has been nominated for governor, and the proposition to make the submission of a constitutional amendment providing for state-wide prohibition to a vote of the people, a demand of the platform of the democratic party; and therefore, branding upon the legislature, was carried in the recent primaries by a good majority.

Tomorrow's convention is expected to be under the control of the prohibition element of the party. With the prohibitionists in control of the convention the nomination for governor and his chief supporters may be expected to take little if any hand in writing the platform. In this connection it is expected that Senator Joseph W. Bailey will be selected as the mediator to bring the opposing factions together in the matter of agreeing on certain proposed planks of the platform. Senator Bailey, however, is not viewed in a very favorable light by many of the prohibition advocates, particularly by those who supported Cane Johnson, prohibitionist, for governor. He is regarded by them as having been largely instrumental in bringing defeat to the cause in the matter of the governorship through his espousal and support of William Polk, another of the gubernatorial aspirants, and, by this split of the prohibition vote, made possible the nomination of Colquitt.

Unless Senator Bailey or some other peace-maker succeeds in bringing about a peaceful solution of the problem, developments of a startling nature are in the opinion of many well-informed and close observing people, almost certain to result from the state convention.

Special attention was devoted to the home maintenance at Colorado Springs for the aged and infirm printers and also to the anti-tuberculosis crusade undertaken by the organization, the results of which so far are reported to be of a most gratifying character.

Secretary-Treasurer Hays, in his annual report, showed that the average paying membership of the organization for the year ending May 31, 1910, was 47,818, an increase of 2,227 over the year 1909 and 1,108 over 1908. CANDIDATES HAVE
FILED ALL NAMES

COUNTY CLERK HAS LISTS FOR COMING PRIMARIES OF WOULD BE OFFICE HOLDERS.

LAST LAP OF THE CAMPAIGN

Primary Day Comes on Tuesday, September 6, When the Nominations
Will Be Made.

With the closing of the filing of the nomination papers for the candidates for county and legislative offices at the County Clerk's office Saturday, the last lap of the Nineteen Ten primary campaign began. All of the candidates had more than enough names on their nomination papers and some too many to file according to law.
This was particularly true of the republican nominees while their democratic brethren flushed with but a few hours to spare with enough but not a surplus of names.

In the first assembly district the fight of two years ago is to be renewed, Louis E. Gottle who was defeated two years ago by L. C. Whitte-t is again seeking the nomination and it promises to be a merry fight in the republican ranks in which county option for and against will play an important part. Both are from Edgerton.
T. C. Richmond of Evansville is the democratic candidate for this office and Hans Nelson of Edgerton
the social democrat.

In the second assembly district
which includes Janesville city, Grant L. Fisher, present republican assemblyman has the field clear at the primaries without any opposition, James H. Lamb, the democratic social democrat, is also without opposition as is John H. Horn, the social democratic aspirant for the office.
This means but little interest in the primaries but possibly a hot fight at the polls.

In the third district, which includes Beloitt, a republican candidate is out Chas. A. Gault, former mayor of Beloitt stands on a Taft platform. E. J.
Jones of Beloit also seeks the office
somewhat complicating the contest while Simon Smith, member of the county board, and also a former mayor of Beloit, and present assemblyman, makes the third candidate. It promises to be a merry fight before flushed on September 6th. The democrats have nominated John G. Heas-ton of Beloit, and the democratic social democrats have named Raymond Puddington as their choice.

For the office of sheriff there are four republican aspirants, Emory H.
Ransom of Bradford, who ran two years ago, Geo. H. Merrill, of Beloit, also a candidate two years ago, Alvah Mayfield of Janesville who withdrew from the race two years ago at the last minute and F. W. Denke, formerly a policeman in Janesville.
Ransom was second in the last year and should win out this time. J.
J. Dulin, democratic alderman from the Fifth ward of Janesville, is the sole candidate on the democratic ticket and Voter of Beloit for the social democrats.

For district attorney S. D. Dunwid-die and C. H. Hemmingsway, both of Janesville, are the two republican aspirants. Hemmingsway was a candidate two years ago while this is Dunwid-die's first appearance in the political field. Hemmingsway was for several years a county superintendent of schools. Dunwidie is a son of the late Judge Benjamin Dunwidie of the circuit court. Both are young men and making a hard fight for the nomination. The democrats have nominated John H. Clark of Beloit and the social democrats Charles H. Smith of Beloitt.

For county clerk Howard Lee is the only republican candidate in the field with Fred Schmidt of Edgerton
the democratic nominee. William L.
Hullington of Beloit the social democratic and Ben G. Geffery of Milton the prohibitionist aspirant.

Arthur M. Church is the only republican aspirant for the office of county treasurer with C. B. Palmer of Lima, the democratic candidate, Frank Henckels of Turtle the social democratic candidate and Marcus S.
Kellough of the town of Turtle as the prohibitionist's choice.

The contest for the republican nomination for register of deeds will be a merry one. John P. Ashworth of Prairie du Sac is the son of the late Judge John P. Ashworth of the circuit court. He is the town of Janesville who made a close run two years ago against Charles Wehrick who won out and P. P. Stanley of the town of Janesville also seeks the nomination.
William C. Duthie of Janesville, is the democratic choice. Clarence T.

HAVE NO CLUES AS TO THE MURDERER

Dr. William Michaelis' Assailant is Still Unknown to the Chicago
Police.

According to Chicago dispatches, disembodied with the progress of the police investigation into the murder of Dr. William F. Michaelis, a dentist at Normal boulevard and West Sixty-first place Friday night, and brother of Dr. M. H. Michaelis of this city, his wife and their relatives yesterday employed private detectives to make an independent inquiry.

Mrs. Michaelis cannot reconcile herself to view the crime in any other light than a "holdup," and her brother-in-law, J. G. Stone, advanced many arguments to support that theory.

That the police are still at sea is shown by the fact that Chief Stewart directed Assistant Chief Schaeffer and Capt. Wood to detail additional men to aid the force of Capt. Morgan Collins. Miss Elizabeth Bredin, the young woman who witnessed the shooting, lent color to the robbery theory by denying former statements attributed to her to the effect that the assassin and slain man talked fully three minutes before the shot was fired. Her latest statement is that the men talked less than a minute, and that but few words passed between them.

Many stories concerning Dr. Michae-lis still are reaching the police, and are being carefully run down. Dr.
Joseph Reeser, who presided for the bullet at the Eastwood hospital, reported that he knew his assailant. The physician also disclosed that Dr.
Michaelis said he was attacked by two men, and Eastwood is full of rumors that two suspicious characters had been loitering at the corner of Normal boulevard and Sixty-third street a short time previous to the attack.

Hones to Prove a "Holdup."
Miss Bredin is positive that only one man attacked the dentist. One favorite topic of gossip is the injury which befell the dentist some weeks ago when he plunged out of his office window on the sidewalk. There are reports that he jumped out or was pushed out by some one seeking revenge. Capt. Collins said Dr. Michaelis had positive proof that Dr. Michaelis had been clearing the windows and fell out and that no one was seen to emerge from the office after that occurrence.

"I believe the police have taken the wrong track," said Mr. Stone. "If I got through I hope to prove that it was a plain case of holdup. Assuming the worst, would a person seeking vengeance expose himself to public view by attacking the doctor on the street when he could have been picked off to better advantage
right in his own office?"

CONTEST AT YOST
PARK CALLED OFF

Chicago "Wrens" Run Into Bunch of Jules Weather While Coming
North and Cancel Game.

Because it rained in Chicago yesterday morning and the skies continued to look while the Chicago
"Wrens," who were to play Janesville
at Yost Park yesterday afternoon were journeying north, they telegraphed ahead cancelling the game.
Only a few fans were disappointed at the grounds as the news was received early enough to head the majority off at the interurbian station.

NOTICE.
Academy Street Crossing N.W. and
S. Paul & M. Roads.

Will the ladies who go over this crossing carrying parcels be pleased to take them down while going over?
It increases the labor of the watchman to protect them and he considers it their duty to assist in their own protection. He doesn't want to be applied his cane in this case. Also, travellers must look to it that they give passengers the sidewalk at the foot of the tower for customarily they are nothing but plums with their horse-drawn carriages at a frantic pace into the crowd they meet. This shall and must be stopped or here the said cane may play a part. This is all I wish to say now. I hope and pray it is enough for the rest is action.

SENTENCE WAS SUSPENDED
IN EDGERTON MEAT CASE

Judge Sanborn of the Federal Court Takes Matter Under Advice.

In the case in the federal court of John Madden, the Edgerton meat shipper, who was arrested and brought to Janesville recently and bound over to appear before the federal court, sentence has been suspended. Madden pleaded guilty to the charge brought and the case was taken under advice-ment. Judge Sanborn also heard testimony on a Broadhead bankruptcy case in which Frank L. Smith of this city was an interested party, having acted as receiver for the defunct company.

Know How

an uncomfortable degree,
there is nothing so comfort-

Surprising, too, how the

CHOLERA DEATH RATE IS HIGH.
6,944 Die of Scourge in Russia Within a Week.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 8.—Russia's scourge, the cholera, continues to spread with alarming rapidity, particularly in the southern mining districts and in this city, where the conditions are fast approaching the proportions of the great epidemic of 1908.

Figures furnished by the central sanitary bureau show that in the week from July 24-30 there were 15,244
cases of cholera and 6,944 deaths.
A report from the United Mine Owners' association, covering 48 mines and four foundries, gives 2,370 cases and 1,250 deaths. The extent of the panic among the miners is shown by figures furnished from 18 mines, from which 18,000 of the 40,000 employees have fled.

LARGEST CRUISER IS LAUNCHED.
New British Fighter Marks Big Advance in Its Class.

London, Aug. 8.—The armored cruiser, Lion, the largest, fastest and most powerful cruiser in the world, was launched at the dockyard at Devonport.

Though the usual secrecy in regard to design was at first maintained, it is now known that the cruiser upon its 700 feet of deck will carry eight guns of 13 1/2 inch caliber, throwing projection of 1,250 pounds.

The cruiser will have a displacement of 23,350 tons and will be driven by turbine engines of 70,000 horsepower, giving it an expected speed of 28 knots.

NOSE COUNT TOTAL DUE OCT. 15.
Census Figures for United States Expected to Show 90,000,000.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The people of the United States will learn their true number, as revealed by the official count of the thirteenth census, about October 15. It is generally believed the number will be about 90,000,000.
This belief is based on the fact that an increase slightly in excess of the 13,000,000 increase during the previous decade would bring the population in 1910 to the 90,000,000 mark.

In two cities evidence of fraud has been discovered, and in one, Great Falls, Mont., a prosecution has been undertaken for fraudulent enumeration.

INFANT DEATH RATE ALARMING.

Iowa Health Board Calls Conference
to Check Diseases.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 8.—That one-third of the babies in Iowa under one year old have died since the hot weather set in was the alarming condition revealed by Dr. G. H. Sumner, secretary of the state board of health.

Doctor Sumner attributes the unusual death rate to four causes: Cholera infantum, infantile paralysis, poor milk and improper care. According to statistics, the first-named disease is the worst in the history of the state. No section seems to be free from it, and infants are dying by the score.

Doctor Sumner has called a special convention of physicians from all over Iowa to discuss means to prevent fatalities.

Infantile paralysis is becoming alarming in many parts of the state. There are now more than forty cases in Mason City, and a number of deaths have resulted there.

Saves Daughter, Then Blinks.

Deposit, N. Y., Aug. 8.—W. R. Michaelis, publisher of the Chicago Staats Zeitung, was drowned at Ogunga lake, a few miles from here, and his body recovered three hours later. Mr.
Michaelis was in a boat with his eight-year-old daughter, when the girl lost her hat. Reaching out for it, she fell overboard. The father jumped out after the child and held her above the water until his strength failed. Parties in boats rescued the child, but the father sank.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I MUST tell you of a remark I overheard on the street this morning," writes one of my letter friends. "A gentleman, evidently a stranger here, remarked to his companion: 'The people in this town don't seem to know how to smile; I haven't seen anybody smiling yet.'"

I don't think that's a pleasant accusation, at all—do you? Seems as if we needed to take some lessons of Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, who at the N. E. A. convention this remarkable woman was telling how, when she has just begun to teach, she was appointed to the "bad" room that the older teachers had given up.

"And what did you do with them?" asked the reporter.

"Oh, I succeeded by using the upward curve method," answered Mrs. Young.

If the gentleman's comment is just, we certainly had better try the upward curve method for a while, if we don't want to be known as the sour city.

We have some beautiful public buildings and some splendid schools and other attractions too numerous to mention, to be sure, but if there are a lot of sour-looking people going about the streets our visitors won't carry away a very pleasant impression.

Of course you can't go about perpetually smiling to yourself.

If you did you'd probably be considered not quite safe to have at large.

But you can look happy and cheerful all the time, and when you meet people or talk with anyone you can smile all you want without being suspected of anything but a happy disposition.

Or better still, take this advice:

So you're way down in the dumps—Blue, you say?

Think you've played out all your trump? Oh, go 'way!

Life's not like a game of poker; In this game you use the joker; It's the card you hold the longest; It's the one you find the strongest; Laugh, and drive the blues away—Laugh, I say!

—Joan Dwight Franklin.

I have a friend who can go to town and get through about twice as many errands in an afternoon as most people can do in a day.

I happened to accompany her on a shopping trip the other day, and I discovered the secret.

She always takes a little pad and pencil, and on her way to town jots down just exactly what she is going to buy.

Yes, I know a good many women do that, and that there is nothing remarkable about it.

It's the next step that counts.

Having jotted down all her errands she then proceeds to map out the campaign and numbers the items in the most convenient order.

Then, when she gets to town she simply consults the slip and does the errands in the order of their numbering.

The result is that she takes the least number of steps possible and does not have the exasperating experience of getting way up one end of the town and finding she must go back for some measly little errand.

If you think this sounds better in theory than it would prove in practice, please disprove that by trying it.

I have.

LUCK AND LAZINESS.

(By MARY RUSSELL.)

When you hear a man complaining about his luck, watch him a little while and see what sort of a laborer he is. As a rule these people who go about bewailing their inability to catch the fair goddess of chance are opposed to strenuous labor. They are the kind who have a fondness for their school days and left school just as soon as the law allowed them to do so "because the old school wasn't no good."

Or they have been boosted through college by strenuous and devious ways. They have been looking for a soft snap ever since and have not found it. They want what used to be known as a shoo-in, but which has been steadily becoming a dream in these strenuous days when hard-work methods are applied to public as well as to private matters.

They have not been accustomed to seizing opportunity by the tail feathers as the gaily attired to hop the fence into the next yard. They have looked on wonderingly and ejaculated "Run old bird!" while some more alert youth grabbed the wily fowl, even though a frown of the feathers were sacrificed in the struggle.

When the various youth discovers that he has let a bird go "as is a bird," he never attempts to explain the matter by reflecting on his own lack of ability. He knows that he is not to blame "because he didn't know the bird's old bird when he saw it, and whose fault is that he saw it like to know?"

The ability to know an opportunity when one sees it is something better than a sixth sense. It is an instinct that may be classed with a woman's intuition. It is regarded by theosophists as the accumulation of wisdom through experiences made in other lives but whatever it is, it is given to some and withheld from others. It can in a measure be cultivated, and when it has not been bestowed by nature as a free gift it must be cultivated. Some failures will be marked down to mistaken estimates of opportunities, but they will at least be reckoned with success, though not crowned with success. It is something to have tried—but don't imagine that you have tried when you have but half-heartedly attempted something.

Put your whole heart into what you are doing. Don't try to do too many things at once. If you are not an expert in the games of life, be sure that you are doing your best—and then don't whine if you fail.

Just say, "I'll know better next time" and hustle around, and if the next time is not apparent to the eye, dig it up!

The man who would succeed never sits down and bewails his luck. He isn't looking for something to drop from the skies on him. He would not wait long enough for such a soft gift to fall on him. He really prefers the things he creates. The job he makes out of what appears to be very un-promising material is the one in which he takes the greatest pride.

Do not be content to follow an old rut in business. Strike out a new and original path for the better. Don't lose sight of that word "better." If your idea is not better than the old one your originality becomes eccentricity. Don't be eccentric. Be sure your ideas suit your superior in business. If you think you can improve the business, and your chief is one of the old-fashioned kind that prefers a rut in which to travel, don't jolt him out all at once. Pry him loose gradually and let him think that he enjoys the prospects of a change. When you can show results—when your work is no longer an experiment—then compare the present with the old way. It is all right to take credit for your work. You really do. Savor it!

For work that you savor, you will leave out all talk of luck. Make your own luck by never allowing yourself to be contented. You are never down and out all your own self knowledge. Remember that!

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

"THINKOGRAMS."

Each of us is a wireless telegraph station for the transmission of thought, and each of us is his own operator.

We send our silent messages day and night from our station to other stations. The things we think are the messages we send and receive.

"As a man thinketh in his heart so is he."

If we think good thoughts and helpfuful thoughts we send out and receive messages of good and of helpfulness. Every instrument that is attuned to this kind of messages receives and sends out such "thinkograms."

And—

If we think evil and destructive thoughts we send out—and receive—evil and destructive thought messages.

Or—

Some may send out messages for help and assistance, just as Jack Linns, the wireless hero, who sent his "C Q D" calls from the sinking ship over the Atlantic. And, believe me, there are receiving instruments so delicate they receive such appeals.

Each operator adjusts his instrument to take only what he wants to hear, just as the wireless machine is adjusted to receive only one kind of aerograms.

Some of us have failed properly to attune our thought machines, and they send out and receive all sorts of jumbled and discordant messages.

Mind you—

If your thought transmitter sends out a stilted message, a message of smiles comes back; a frown message brings back frowns; a hateful message brings back hate, and so on.

You say this is fanciful?

It is not. In so far as mental telegraphy has been investigated it is the same sort as the wireless telegraphy. It all depends upon the attuning of the instruments to the waves.

You do not understand how the wireless operator aboard the ship sends the dots and dashes out on the waves of the air to the station on the land, do you?

But they go!

So you do not understand how your thought messages go out over the waves of mental transmission to the sensitized brain station of another, but—

They go!

How necessary that we should attune the delicate machinery of thought telegraphy so that only the good and true and brave "thinkograms" shall come and go.

Prevention.
"Do you believe that music prevents crime?" "To a certain extent," replied Mr. Shinnick. "When a man keeps both hands and his breath busy with a cornet, you know he can't be picking pockets, attempting homicide or slandering his neighbors."

The Starling's Tongue.
All starlings have a very peculiar formation at the extremity of the tongue, which gives the appearance of a piece having been tipped out of it. This fact gave rise to the mistaken idea that a starling's tongue must be cut before it can be taught to speak.

How wholesome, how nutritious, how hunger satisfying good bread is!

We realized this in childhood, and Oh! how we did eat! How we did enjoy a slice of nice, fresh bread! You would enjoy fresh bread today just as much as you did then—try it and see!

But to get the keenest enjoyment, to get the greatest amount of benefit, you should insist that the bread be made from

AIDING DIGESTION BY EXERCISE.

Digestion is not an exclusive chemical process, depending upon the secretion of saliva, gastric fluid, bile and other liquids, nor altogether a mental process. Though depending largely upon the mental state, it is, to a large extent, physical. Two dogs were fed alike; one after following a carriage several hours, had not digested the meal to an appreciable degree; the other, lying in its kennel, had completely digested it. Gentle exercise is favorable, severe physical exercise unfavorable. A few minutes' rest after eating facilitates digestion.

The character of digestion depends largely upon the motor activity of the stomach and intestine. If exercise is neglected, the stomach may become "flabby" and retain food unduly. Milk and eggs are especially injurious in this case, uncooked food best—even though cereal starch be included, which is largely indigestible. Persons of sedentary occupation and nervous women, especially, are liable to this condition. The remedy is, of course, general exercise to tone the entire system and special remedial exercises. Moderate horseback riding is obviously good, as are those movement exercises that strengthen the abdominal muscles.

VISIT COUNTY FARM SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Salvation Army Accompany J. T. Wright There Yesterday Afternoon and Hold Services.
Captain and Mrs. Fleming of the Salvation Army, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jacobs and daughter and J. T. Wright visited the county farm Sunday afternoon and spent a very pleasant two hours there holding services both in the chapel and outdoors. Mrs. Fleming sang several selections including the one that is a favorite with all, "No, Never Alone," and both Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs gave talks. Mr. Wright gave a beautiful talk and Captain Fleming read the 95th Psalm giving a little talk on serving God and the great joy that comes from it. The meetings closed with the repeating of the Lord's Prayer. Before leaving, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs and the attendants handed a purse of $25 which they raised to the captain to be added to the building fund for the new building recently opened. The fact that the donation came unasked gave great pleasure to the captain and his wife who are working very hard to make the new home a success. The party were much pleased with the manner in which the farm and asylum are kept up and the arrangements for comfort for all the unfortunate who make their home there.

MANY SPECTATORS AT SUNDAY RACES

Come in all Manner of Conveyances to See Contests at Fair Grounds.

Several hundred spectators, who came in automobiles, rigs and on foot, viewed the two races arranged by local horsemen at the Fair Grounds Sunday morning. Good time was made in one event and those present were more than pleased by the exhibition.

The first race, the 2:10 pace, in which E. Ray Lloyd of this city and E. T. Corcoran of Beloit, had horses entered was won by the local driver with Ray's horse. The first heat was negotiated in 2:34, the second in 2:29 1/2 and the third in 2:33.
J. C. Nichols took the 2nd race of Beloit and P. W. Froehner of this city. The prizes were two whips, one donated by E. H. Murdock and Frank Sadler.

In view of the growing popularity of the matinees, local horsemen are hoping to be able to place the fair grounds track in better condition and arrange some events more pretentious than have been given thus far.

REPUBLICANS OF TEXAS TO FIGHT PROHIBITION

Probable That Platform Adopted Will Be Anti-Prohibition-Terrill For Governor.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Dallas, Texas, Aug. 8.—Chairman C. A. Lyon and the other members of the State Republican committee are here to complete the final arrangements for the state convention tomorrow. The convention will nominate a state ticket and frame a platform. It is expected that J. O. Terrill of San Antonio will be nominated for governor without opposition. The platform will follow very closely the one adopted by the Republicans of Texas two years ago. There will probably be a strong anti-prohibition plank and an emphatic declaration in favor of "home rule."

Good Medicine Dropper.

When one requires a certain number of drops of a liquid, and a special dropping bottle is not at hand, it is often difficult to drop from a bottle slowly enough to keep an accurate account. A simple dropper can be made in this way: Get a piece of wire, bend it parallel, and then twist it loosely. Next cut off the ends neatly and bend it into a right angle. The dropper is now ready. To use it, you put the long end into the bottle, and tilt the bottle sufficiently to allow the liquid to trickle slowly down the dropper.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Jamesville Daily Gazette, August 8, 1870.—It is pretty generally known that the Southern Wisconsin fair is to be held in Jamesville, commencing on the 20th of next month. Seven thousand dollars are offered in premiums, competition not limited to the state. The Society is making unusual efforts to render it the best fair ever held in this city, and if the weather is favorable we expect to see every town and locality in the southern portion of the state well represented in this assembling of the products, manufactures and arts of the best portion of Wisconsin.

A large number of pigeons were shot this morning about the Myers house, the common council having given permission to Mr. Myers to shoot them. For several years these doves have had undisturbed possession of the roofs and cornices of many of our public buildings, nesting and rearing young season after season, till their number has become legion and their presence an annoyance.

"I should like to propose," remarked the long suffering flat dweller, "that, since we are to wake up every little while and find a Harvard graduate doing temporary duty as junior in our underground apartment, that the presiding officers of that college consider the proposition of inserting a course in their curriculum 'touching' on and appertaining to the correct method of manipulating the hot water boiler of flat buildings. It's no more than human."

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF TEXAS.

O. B. Colquitt, nominated by the anti-prohibition faction of the democratic party for governor of Texas by a plurality of 40,000.

Anti-Prohibitionists won in the democratic primaries in Texas. The anti-prohibition organization nominated its candidate, O. B. Colquitt, for governor by a plurality of 40,000, and the prohibitionists, according to the count of votes so far made, carried the proposition of statewide prohibition by a large majority.

The proposition as voted upon recently is to make it obligatory on the part of the legislature to submit to a vote of the people a proposed constitutional amendment providing for statewide prohibition.

The state convention, which is to meet at Galveston August 10, must make this demand a part of the platform.

It is rumored Mr. Colquitt will refuse to accept this statewide prohibition feature of the platform, and in that event it is said the prohibition element of the party will put out an independent candidate for governor.

But for the fact that there were two prohibition candidates in the field for governor that faction of the party would have also won that feature of the contest by a large majority.

Senator J. W. Bailey's candidate, William Polk, is the third man in the race for governor. One John Johnson occupying second position and running in the lead in many parts of the state. R. V. Davidson, former attorney-general, who made the race for governor on his record as a "great lawyer," and in having collected a fine of $1,000,000 from the Waters-Petersen Oil company, driving that corporation out of Texas for violating the anti-trust laws, is the fourth man, as shown by incomplete returns.

The prohibition Democrats are reported to have a two-thirds majority of the legislature, which will give them the power to amend the constitution for governor is an anti-prohibitionist.

Senator Thomas is nominated lieutenant-governor by a large majority. His principal opponent was A. B. Davidson, who sought reelection. Davidson took a leading part in expelling Thomas from the senate two years ago because the latter had made public charges that members of that body were influenced by lobbyists in legislative action.

John Bailey is nominated for comptroller; Sam Sparks, for treasurer; and J. P. Lightfoot, for attorney-general.

RAILROAD ATTORNEYS END THEIR CONFERENCE

Portsmouth Meeting Deals With Construction of New Federal Rate Law.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 8.—The attorneys representing all of the important railroads of the country, who have been in conference here several days, discussing the new railroad law, adjourned to meet again in New York city in December next.

So far as could be learned there appeared to be a general sentiment among those present in favor of a liberal interpretation of the amendments to the railroad law adopted by the last congress. This was particularly true of the so-called long and short haul clause, in the consideration of which much time was spent.

The lawyers who have engaged in the conference express confidence that the interstate commerce commission will interpret conservatively, without making any rulings which will seriously disturb existing conditions.

"There has been no disposition whatever on the part of anyone to suggest means of evading the act," said Edgar J. Rich, general solicitor of the Boston and Maine railroad. "The sole purpose," he continued, "has been to construe the act and to advise the railroad officials as to what they must do in order to comply with it in letter and spirit."

"DEAF" CONGRESS IS OPENED
Ninth Convention of National Association Convened at Colorado Springs.

Colorado Springs, Col., Aug. 8.—The third World's Congress of the Deaf and ninth convention of their national association was formally opened here today, the combined gathering being called to order by George W. Veditz, of this city, president of the national body. It was a notable assembly of men and women from nearly every state in the Union whose efforts are directed to the betterment of those who are afflicted as they are themselves. They are trying especially to bring about a change in the methods of educating the deaf, believing that the so-called speech or oral method is a great mistake, being unnatural and inefficient. One of the main events of the congress will be a debate on this topic Wednesday morning.

The convention opened with an invocation and the rendering of "America" in the sign language by five deaf-mute ladies. Addresses of welcome were made by Mayor H. F. Avery, Governor Shafer, Joseph F. Humphrey and Mrs. G. W. Veditz, and the response was by Alexander L. Puch of New York. Next came talks by Henri Galland of Paris, Albin M. Watzolk of Altonburg, Germany, and other foreign guests, and the delivery of a message from Dr. Edward Miner Gallaudet of Washington, who is considered the greatest living benefactor of the American deaf. The address of President Veditz closed the morning session.

TRANSFORMATION OF CAT'S FUR

Remarkable transformation of a cat's fur by temperature has been reported by Prof. A. C. Geddes of the Dublin Royal College of Surgeons. An all-black cat was accidentally shut up in the refrigerating chamber of a mail steamer in Sydney harbor, and was not discovered until about thirty-two days later, when the ship was off Aden. The cat was hardly recognizable, the fur having become long and thick, changing nearly to white on the back. Brought out into the intense heat of the tropical sun, the heavy white coat rapidly fell off, and the black cat was itself again before London was reached.

An all-black cat was accidentally shut up in the refrigerating chamber of a mail steamer in Sydney harbor, and was not discovered until about thirty-two days later, when the ship was off Aden. The cat was hardly recognizable, the fur having become long and thick, changing nearly to white on the back. Brought out into the intense heat of the tropical sun, the heavy white coat rapidly fell off, and the black cat was itself again before London was reached.

ABRUZZI BAN DECLARED OFF?

ROME REPORT SAYS ROYAL CONSENT HAS BEEN OBTAINED.

MISS ELKINS ON CONTINENT

Engagement of Italian Duke to Senator's Daughter Will Probably Be Officially Announced Shortly by King and Heiress' Mother.

Rome, Aug. 8.—The opposition of the royal family to the marriage of the duke of the Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of Senator Stephen D. Elkins of West Virginia, has been overcome. An official announcement of their engagement is momentarily expected. It will not be necessary for the duke to renounce his title. Miss Elkins will be received into the family as a member of the royal court.

Most of the hostility to the match came from the haughty duchess of Ancona, wife of the duke's eldest brother. Illness took the duchess to central Africa and she was no longer able to participate in the family councils. The duchess is reported now to be dying of consumption. Her influence in the royal family against the match has gradually grown less.

Mother to Announce Betrothal. According to the information obtained it is said that Mrs. Elkins, who is now on the continent with her daughter, will have announcement of her daughter's betrothal coincident with that published by the king's order.

Senator Wanted American. Washington, Aug. 8.—There has been no time since the announcement of the engagement of Katherine Elkins to Duke D'Abruzzi two years ago that the inner circle of society had any doubt that it would end in the marriage which now seems assured.

The unknown factor in the case all the time was Senator Elkins. He was opposed to the match and wanted an American marriage. Mrs. Elkins, it is learned from an expression she let drop just before this last trip to Europe, was decidedly not opposed to the wedding of her daughter by the Italian nobleman. In fact she told several of her friends that the constant exploitation of the friendship of the duke and Katherine Elkins would do more harm than good as to the future of the two interesting people.

The news that opposition has been withdrawn will be received with unfeigned joy not only by Washington resident society but by the diplomatic corps, and especially its ladies who all favored the suit of the gallant and persistent duke.

Austrian Captures Street Car After Double Crime Near Omaha.

Omaha, Aug. 8.—After slaying two companions near Omaha, Mike Arlik, an Austrian employed as a section hand on the Northwestern railroad, captured a street car, placed upon it the only two witnesses to the double killing and made a fast run to Omaha, with the intention, the police say, of doing away with the witnesses in order that they might not testify against him. Both escaped, however, and Charles Latham, a messenger, followed Arlik on a bicycle until the police overtook them and arrested Arlik.

advantage—and Orme blessed the Japanese athletes for their insistence on fresh air; but on the other hand, it made quietness essential.

Slowly he let himself through the opening in the platform and moved a few steps down the ladder. Then he crouched and peered through the dingy lace curtains that were swaying in the breeze.

The interior was dim, but Orme succeeded in distinguishing the furniture. There were straw mats on the floor and several chairs stood about. At the opposite side of the room was a closed door. From his knowledge of Madame Alla's apartment, Orme knew that this door opened into the hall of the building, and the square ground glass, with its reversed letters of the athlete's name, told him that it was used as the chief entrance. Madame Alla preferred her clients to enter into another room.

In the farther corner of the interior Orme saw a large square table. It was covered with a red print cloth, which hung over the edge, nearly to the floor. If he could reach that table and conceal himself beneath it, his position would be better.

And now he suddenly remembered that the outline of his head would be visible against the outer light to anyone within. The room seemed to be empty, but—at that instant he heard a door open. He drew his head up. Some one was moving about the room.

The steps went here and there. Chairs were shifted, to judge from the sound. But evidently there was only one person, for Orme could hear no voices. He decided that Alla was preparing for visitors.

Again he heard a door open and close. Had Alla gone out, or had some other person entered? Orme waited a moment, listening; no sound came from within. He lowered his head and peered. The room was empty.

"You seem to be acquainted with Your Neighbor, After All."

Alla might return at any moment, but the chance had to be taken. Quickly, silently, Orme descended to the platform, slid over the sill and tiptoed over to the table. Another instant and he was under the cover.

Death From One Cigarette.

Eating a cigarette caused the death of eleven-month-old Walter Wills at Philadelphia the other morning. The child's mother placed him in a chair near a table while at her morning work about the house. While she was out of the room he picked up a cigarette butt which his father had left on the edge of the table and stuffed it in his mouth. It was soon chewed up and swallowed. An hour later the baby was taken violently ill. The doctor used a stomach pump, but could bring no relief to the little sufferer, whose death soon followed.

Cultivate Your Field

Life is just a matter of farming—of tilling a fertile soil in a good field—of breaking ground and being patient. The harvesting comes last—the main work must be done while least results are showing.

Many a man has lost out just because he wasn't patient enough to wait until well planted endeavor had time to sprout.

When you find the great majority of Janesville's business men all doing one certain thing to increase their business, and when for a great number of years they continue to do this one thing, you may rest assured that it has proven a fertile soil in a good field.

If there is one thing more than another done by Janesville's merchants it is

It is the profitable results from advertising that keep up its use. Any business that has for its field the territory within a radius of 30 miles of Janesville can use no medium for getting business that will or has produced more results than has advertising in The Gazette, or that is as ECONOMICAL.

One man will say that advertising is all right for the other fellow, but my business is different. True—your business is different, as different as the confectioner is from the harness dealer, but advertising will prove as profitable to you as it has to all others IF IT IS ADAPTED TO YOUR BUSINESS. If you are interested in this subject, ask our advertising man to call and help YOU formulate a plan for YOUR business. If it appeals to you, use it.

If you have a legitimate business and offer true and honest values to the public, advertise.

THE SPECIFICATIONS

Our E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" chassis remains unchanged for 1911 and the same standard specifications which have proven so successful, practical and economical in operation will be the rule during the coming season. There will be the same powerful motor, simple carburetor, practical rear axle transmission, automatic oiling system, safe steering apparatus and other practical features constructed by the same superior workmen from the highest class of materials. No necessity for changes appears in the case of a product which has stamped itself as standard and absolutely successful.

One Year's Guarantee With Every Car

The E-M-F Company believes that a stage has been reached in the automobile industry which makes it the duty of every responsible manufacturer to protect dealers and public by an absolute guarantee of his product.

We accordingly announce that, beginning August 1, 1910, every car manufactured at our plants WILL BE GUARANTEED FOR ONE YEAR as absolutely free from defects in material or workmanship, and will replace, free of charge, any part of the car OR ITS EQUIPMENT which proves defective in any such respect.

EVERITT-METZGER-FLANDERS COMPANY

W. E. FLANDERS

President & General Manager.

A STARTLING DEVELOPMENT in manufacturing, is it not? Yet it is one which comes appropriately from the factory which was the first to give the public a satisfactory car at a reasonable price, and the company whose policies have always been pre-eminently original and progressive.

HOW CAN WE AFFORD TO DO IT? That is the question which is naturally first on the lips of the man unfamiliar with the E-M-F Company's progress and the merits of its output. There are several reasons, and here they are. The E-M-F Company will furnish absolute protection to its dealers and purchasers—the first time any such promise has been made in the history of the industry—because:—

WE MAKE ALL OF OUR OWN CAR. The E-M-F Company alone can say—and prove the statement—that every part which is assembled to build an automobile is manufactured in its own mammoth plants—plants conceded the most efficient in the industry, with machinery more specialized and organization better systematized than any firm of its character.

WE KNOW OUR PRODUCT and we have confidence in it—confidence born of years of successful manufacture and nurtured by the severest tests to which motor cars can be put.

WE BUILD 36,000 CARS A YEAR and are enlarging our capacity as rapidly as our contractors are able. Unlike some automobile manufacturers who say they aim to produce only a few cars of high quality and profess to believe that, the smaller their output, the better is each car, we maintain that the more cars we build according to our methods, the better is each individual car and the less is its cost both to us and the purchaser.

PRODUCTION IN LARGE QUANTITIES ASSURES QUALITY in each item of manufacture, according to E-M-F Company methods. It gives us the opportunity of providing, at a minimum price to each purchaser of E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" Cars the most skillful engineers, the most efficient mechanical force and the most versatile array of automatic machinery ever gathered for one purpose in a manufacturing enterprise. It enables us to add to our equipment a laboratory where we test every carload of raw steel which enters into the manufacture of our cars. The purchaser of a car made at a small factory must pay more for every department of manufacture or else—far more likely—he pays for a product designed and manufactured by second class men provided with second-class facilities.

PROVE IT? WHY, OF COURSE! Does the housewife who wants a sewing machine go rambling about the retail district for a product made by hand in some small factory and therefore supposedly superior to a Singer that comes from a factory where they make a million machines a year and sell them through their own branches? Does the hunter who wishes a good rifle search for something superior to the product of the Winchester Company which, by quantitative production, has made rifle-manufacture a science? Does the man who wants an adding machine ask for something better than the Burroughs and believe it possible for another company to make a better machine because it manufacturers only a few score where the Burroughs manufactures by the thousand? Does the man who wants to buy a watch shun the counter where he would find the Waltham, Elgin or South Bend, and seek the little corner occupied by an obscure brand of timekeeper, manufactured by a company compelled to sell at a higher price, though providing an article unproven and comparatively unknown? Is the Steinway piano and unwelcome piece of furniture in the home of a musician because, forsooth, the manufacturers build them in large quantities which find a ready market at a reasonable and therefore popular price? Does the farmer who needs a wagon, waste his time looking for something better than the Studebaker, merely because, by the systematic manufacture of 200,000 vehicles annually, that firm has made its product the standard article of the world? The answers are, of course, obvious. And the same course of reasoning is logical for the man in the market for a watch, a piano or an automobile. There is a standard in each realm of manufacture and "Standard" is synonymous with "Excellence."

A STANDARD ARTICLE; THAT'S IT! It has been the ambition of the E-M-F Company to build that very thing. And why not a standard for automobiles? The industry is surely old enough; the universal manner in which the E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars are running in every city and almost every hamlet of the United States and Canada makes the claim logical. We are the one company that is building automobiles as the Singer builds sewing machines, as the Winchester builds rifles, as the Burroughs builds adding machines, as the Waltham, Elgin and South Bend build watches, as the Steinway builds pianos, as the Studebaker builds wagons and carriages—in large quantities and by expensive machinery which makes every part of every individual entirely of the product available for use in every other one. Standard? Why, of course, and therefore the most desirable.

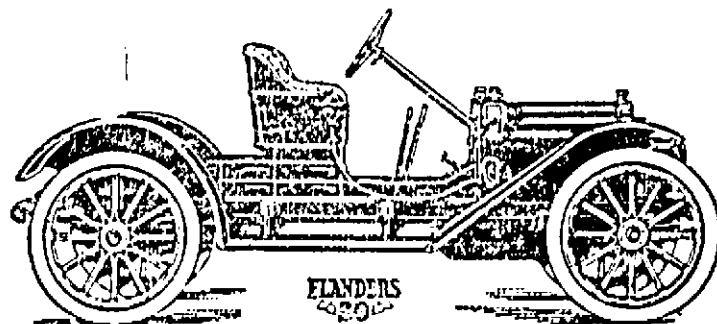

THE SAME SQUARE DEAL we have always given our distributors throughout the world will remain in force in the future and we are now making contracts for the season of 1911. The work of distribution we believe will be facilitated by the establishment of a system of branch houses where dealers and owners may obtain supplies and extra parts. A list of these branches appears below.

ANOTHER NEW POLICY which we are announcing today concerns particularly the relations between the E-M-F Company and our agents. Several manufacturers are at present engaged in an endeavor to persuade their distributors to handle the one line exclusively in 1911. In many cases such overtures have been made to E-M-F Company dealers who have handled other cars in combination, during 1910. As a result we have received hundreds of letters during the past month from dealers anxious to renew their contracts, asking if, for the coming year, we are expecting to ally ourselves with the exclusive-representation movement. To such inquiries we are replying emphatically "No!" E-M-F Company distributors are free to handle all the lines they believe consistent with their policies, whatever they may be.

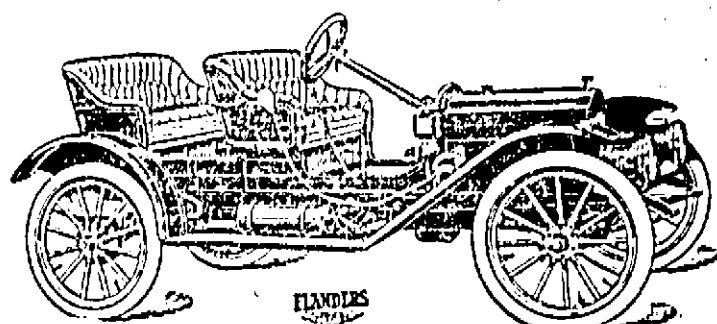

WE WELCOME SUCH AN ARRANGEMENT. The E-M-F Co. does not ask nor expect exclusive representation. We are not dictating the business arrangements of our agents. We believe that they should have the power to represent what companies they may elect. We certainly do not fear the competition of any other line of cars and will genuinely appreciate the opportunity to show our cars on the same floor with any others of their type. We shall stand by this policy and are ready to complete our arrangements for 1911 on this basis.

THE EQUIPMENT

Although the price of tires, raw material and the cost of labor has materially advanced during the past year, the E-M-F Company will continue to furnish its cars complete for the list prices noted. Bear in mind that every E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" is equipped at the list price with a magneto, five lamps, tube horn and generator, all of which are usually listed as extras by other manufacturers.

We make our own parts and equipments and are able to eliminate a considerable source of expense to the purchaser. Otherwise it would be necessary for us to increase the prices of all our models or else to reduce the amount of equipment provided as standard.
